

Do not desire to possess anything that belongs to another person.

Ex. 20:17a CEV

COVET: the uncontrolled desire to acquire

Negative Effects:

-Fatigue -Debt -Worry

-Conflict -Dissatisfaction

Yet true godliness with contentment is itself great wealth. 1 Tim. 6:6 NLT

After all, we brought nothing with us when we came into the world, and we can't take anything with us when we leave it. So if we have enough food and clothing, let us be content. 1 Tim. 6:7-8 NLT

But people who long to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. 1 Tim. 6:9 NLT

For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows. 1 Tim. 6:10 NLT

But you, Timothy, are a man of God; so run from all these evil things. Pursue righteousness and a godly life, along with faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness. 1 Tim. 6:11 NLT

Teach those who are rich in this world not to be proud and not to trust in their money, which is so unreliable. Their trust should be in God, who richly gives us all we need for our enjoyment. 1 Tim. 6:17 NLT

Tell them to use their money to do good. They should be rich in good works and generous to those in need, always being ready to share with others. 1 Tim. 6:18 NLT

By doing this they will be storing up their treasure as a good foundation for the future so that they may experience true life. 1 Tim. 6:19 NLT

HOW TO LEARN TO BE CONTENT

* Resist comparing myself to others

learn to admire without having to acquire

* Be happy with what I have myth: having more will make me happier

* Use what I have to help others

giving breaks the grip of materialism

* Refocus on what's going to last

What am I really living for?
